COLOUR TRENDS PORTFOLIO

WELCOME TO THE CHURCHILL COLOUR PORTFOLIO,

where we offer inspiration on combining colours and textures to create striking tabletop looks, in line with the latest trends in hospitality interior design. Use this tool to explore muted, complementary tones or bold colour clashes, finding ideas to help create your unique tableware style.

RETRO

Explore the RETRO trend for inspiration around colour palettes inspired by the past, from retro pastels to mid-century chic.

ORGANIC

Discover the tones and textures of nature, including the fresh greens so synonymous with the natural world or the deeply saturated hues found in the landscape.

NEUTRALS

Draw inspiration from the calming tones of the NEUTRALS, like soft neutral taupe tones or the blush beiges of bohemian designs.

RETRO

Explore the Back to the Future trend, where designers look to the past for inspiration in colour palettes that feel both nostalgic and forward- thinking. From retro pastels to mid-century chic, this trend blends vibrant, bold hues with more subdued, earthy tones, creating a palette that captures the optimism and warmth of mid-century design while maintaining a natural, approachable feel.

Soft shades like pale pinks and blush evoke a retro vibe, bringing a calming sense of lightness and playful fun. Designers continue to draw inspiration from the 1960s and 1970s, with their abstract forms, warm tones, and harmonious contrasts. At the same time, as AI transforms creative industries and space travel moves from imagination to reality, today's designers are re visualising the future through a lens shaped by the past, taking cues from the bold, futuristic illustrations of the mid-20th century while imagining the world of tomorrow.

GOLDEN ERA

Blending vibrant bold hues with more subdued and earthy tones creates a mid-century look but with a natural feel.

Vibrant accent colours such as mustard yellow are combined with tan leather and metallic finishes like copper or brass. Incorporating botanical elements brings in deep green tones and creates the natural vibe. Try the rich Sorrel and Sage Greens in Stonecast with pops of colour from Mustard Seed Yellow. Add Patina Vintage Copper for a metallic glint.

Combine earthy greens with warm yellow and orange tones, creating a mid century look but with a natural feel.

WHIMSICAL PINKS

Soft pastels like pale pinks and blush tones create a retro vibe but with calming sense of lightness and fun.

Whimsical and nostalgic, shades of pink continue to be popular in hospitality interiors, drawing inspiration from the vintage charm of the 1950's and 1960's. Choose vibrant pinks in Stonecast and Studio Prints Raku, or softer blush tones in Stonecast Canvas and Stonecast Raw. Pair with retro-inspired pattern Era for a truly nostalgic look.

MIDCENTURY MODERN

Designers continue to draw inspiration from the mid-century era, including the abstract forms and warm colour palettes of the 1960's and 1970's.

Wood panelling and tactile materials such as velvet and leather are increasingly paired with elements inspired by the space-age era such as spherical shapes and curved lines. Combine the warm tones of Stonecast Mustard Seed, Patina Rust Red and Vintage Copper with deep Patina Teal. Enhance the mid-century feel with earthy browns in Stonecast Raw and Studio Prints Stone.

Combine dusky teals and blues with earthy browns, alternatively add warmth to the palette with burnt sienna tones and mustards.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

As AI revolutionises all industries and space tourism becomes a reality, designers are re-visualising the future, taking inspiration from the past and how the age of today was imagined in the futuristic illustrations of the 1950s and 1960s.

The result is a playful revival of abstract space age design, with bold and empowering colour palettes. Mix the dark tones of Patina Cobalt and Deep Purple with Raku Quartz Pink and Stonecast Lavender to create a cosmic palette. Add a pop of warmth with Stonecast Mustard Seed, a perfect retro shade for the trend Back to the Future.

For a cosmic palette use deep purples and rich pinks. Brighten up the futuristic look with fun pops of orange and yellow.

PLAYFUL PASTELS

A hallmark of midcentury and post-war design, pastel tones are iconic of the 1950's-1970's. Nostalgic with a feelgood vibe, retro trends like pastels tend to resurface at times when consumers crave comfort and optimism.

Combine the soft pastels of Stonecast such as Petal Pink, Sage Green, Duckegg Blue and Lavender to create a visually gentle retro look. Add some texture with Rose Quartz Pink in Raku. Add some texture with Rose Quartz Pink in Raku.

ORGANIC

Discover the rich tones and textures of nature, from the fresh greens so synonymous with the natural world to the deeply saturated hues found across landscapes. The Organic trend celebrates this beauty, bringing the outside in with deep forest and mossy greens complemented by pops of floral pinks and purples, creating a tropical yet grounded feel.

Inspired by nature's spectrum, designers are embracing moody ocean blues and other deeply saturated shades to evoke luxurious serenity and a sense of calm, particularly in hospitality interiors. By reconnecting people with the natural world, these palettes reflect a growing desire to live intentionally and consume consciously, while also encouraging designers to be bolder, drawing on the dramatic, vibrant colours of exotic or barren landscapes to create spaces that feel alive, restorative, and mindful.

FRESH GREENERY

Designers create spaces that reconnect consumers with the natural world, feeding the desire to live with intent and consume consciously to protect planet.

Circular thinking means we're seeing more regenerative or salvaged materials, as well as natural colour palettes intended to be long-lasting and trans-seasonal. Fresh ingredients look great on tableware that emulates the natural world, and green is now a hugely popular tableware choice. Get the look by pairing the greens in Stonecast and Patina with off whites and organic textures like Studio Prints Stone.

Deeply saturated green tones create the rich feel of a dense forest, alternatively use lighter greens paired with taupes and creams for a fresher look.

BOLD NATURE

As designers draw inspiration from nature they're becoming bolder with colour, using the deeply saturated tones found in exotic or barren landscapes.

Spaces also become more immersive, surrounding the consumer with the natural world and blurring the lines between inside and outside. Find deep natural tones in Patina, such as Rust Red and Rustic Teal or the striking Chroma Marine. Pair these cooler strong tones with warm Stonecast Spiced Orange, or to create a exotic botanical vibe introduce the pinks of Stonecast and Raku.

NEUTRALS

Draw inspiration from the calming tones of the Neutrals trend, from soft taupes to the blush beiges of bohemian design. Tranquil dusky azures and powder blues create soothing atmospheres perfect for spaces intended for relaxation, while soft, minimal greys bring a clean, serene, and balanced feel to interiors.

Across hospitality, home, and workplace design, these palettes help provide comfort and equilibrium during times of change, supporting wellbeing through thoughtful environments. Bohemian interiors in particular embody this trend, celebrating free-spirited lifestyles, wanderlust, and creative expression while fostering relaxed, restorative spaces.

SOFT WARMTH

Interior design of both hospitality, home and work places has the ability to bring comfort and equilibrium during times of change or turbulence.

Designers are creating spaces focused on wellness and low stimulation, areas with unintrusive energy where consumers can make meaningful connections. Soft and neutral colour palettes, raw materials and natural light adorn hybrid spaces intended for work, rest or socialising. Create a neutral mix of off whites with Patina Antique Taupe, and Agate Grey in Studio Print designs. Add warmth to the palette with deep browns from Studio Prints Stone and Emerge.

BOHO LAYERS

Bohemian interior design embodies the trend for wellness, creating relaxed spaces that celebrate free-spirited lifestyles, wanderlust and creative expression.

Layers of texture, pattern and colour, paired with global influences create relaxed and comforting vibes. While the incorporation of greenery and natural light reduces stress, positively affects mood and improves air quality. Use warm neutrals for a perfect Boho palette, like Patina Terracotta and Raku Agate Grey. Mix in earthy tones like Raw Brown and Patina Antique Taupe, add a splash of natural freshness with Stonecast Sage Green.
